

Extemporaneous Writing

Event Summary

Extemporaneous Writing provides HOSA members with the opportunity to gain knowledge and skills required for writing an essay. This competitive event consists of a secret topic related to health and a written essay based on the given secret topic. This event aims to inspire members to learn more about health through learned writing skills.

Dress Code

Competitors must be in official HOSA uniform or in proper business attire. Bonus points will be awarded for proper dress.

General Rules

- 1. Competitors in this event must be active members of HOSA and in good standing.
- Secondary and Postsecondary / Collegiate divisions are eligible to compete in this event.
- 3. Competitors must be familiar with and adhere to the "General Rules and Regulations of the HOSA Competitive Events Program (GRR)."
- All competitors shall report to the site of the event at the time designated for each round of competition. At ILC, competitor's photo ID must be presented prior to ALL competition rounds.

Competitive Process

- 5. To prepare for competition competitors will pre-format a Word document on their computer prior to competition, which must be formatted as follows:
 - A. Title page is centered and includes Event name, Competitor Name, HOSA Division, HOSA Chapter #, School Name, Chartered Association, Event Topic
 - B. Pages are one-sided, typed
 - C. 12 pt. Arial font, double-spaced, in English
 - D. 1" margins on 8 1/2" x 11" paper
 - E. Running header with last name, event and page number top right side of each page (not counting title page)
 - F. Stapled top left side of paper, as needed
 - G. Saved as Word doc or .pdf
- 6. Competitors will report with an electronic device containing a USB port that operates on battery power electricity is NOT provided and CANNOT be used. Devices without a USB port (such as cloud-based writing media or devices such as Chromebooks) will not be able to save the essay to a HOSA flash drive, therefore, cannot be judged.
- Competitors will be seated at desks or tables.
- 8. Competitors will write an essay in Microsoft Word based on a secret topic given to competitors at the start of the event.
- The topic shall relate to current health issues or HOSA. All competitors shall write on the same topic. The topic is a secret topic that is not disclosed until the event begins. Professional ethics demand that competitors DO NOT discuss or reveal the secret topic for ANY event until after the event has concluded. Violation of the ethics rules will be severely penalized per the GRRs.

- 10. Sixty (60) minutes are given to write the essay.
- 11. Time Remaining Announcements: There will be a verbal announcement when there are 30 minutes, 15 minutes, 5 minutes, and 1 minute remaining in this event.
- 12. Competitors will save the essay (as Word doc or .pdf) to a flash drive provided by HOSA and will submit the flash drive to event personnel when they are finished. The completed written essay must be saved within the maximum of sixty (60) minutes to the flash drive, before the timekeeper calls time.
- 13. Flash drives with saved essays will be submitted in a sealed envelope that is labeled with the competitor's division, name, school and cell phone number. HOSA will provide the envelope.

Supplies

- 14. No printed materials or prepared notes shall be allowed at the event location.
- 15. Use of the Internet and other computer tools: Internet use is NOT provided and not allowed. This includes any internet / cloud based computers. Spell-check, grammar check, and thesaurus may be used if available on computer, and can be accessed without internet use. No plagiarism is allowed and work must be that of the competitors per the GRR #13-16.

Alternate Process

As an alternative to using laptop computers, this event may be held in a computer lab, in which case competitors will develop their essays on the computers that are available. The use of a computer lab may or may not be announced prior to the event. Competitors should come prepared for either option.

If a computer lab is used with a networked printer, competitors may be asked to print their own essay to turn in along with the essay saved to a flash drive. The specific process to be followed will be announced by the event personnel.

Note: IF this event takes place in a computer lab, competitors will be given 5 minutes prior to the start of the timed 60 minutes to pre-format the Word document. During this 5 minutes, competitors will be provided with a copy of the above formatting requirements (it item #5) for their reference to help pre-format their Word document.

Final Scoring

- 17. In the event of a tie, a tie breaker will be determined by the areas on the rating sheet section(s) with the highest point value in descending order.
- 18. Reminder to refer to GRR #24: By entering this event, competitor's materials become property of HOSA Future Health Professionals, and are not returned to the competitors.

Competitor Must Bring:
	Electronic device containing a USB port that operates on battery power (device may contain preformatted blank document for essay)
	Software to convert Word into .pdf (optional)
